

Min a Jon
V. Asaph

17 June

My dear Mr. Garrison,

112

We all rejoice
that you are safely arrived in this Country & that the change is beneficial to your health.
It will give us
all great gratification if ^{your son} you can shape your journeyings so as to spend some days at our house.

The journey from Bristol to P. Asaph
is a very beautiful one, particularly if you go to Slough
on your way,
as the railway
ride from there to P. Asaph is very fine almost all the way.

When I came from Wristol last, I crossed ^{the Channel} first to Newport in Wormon on the hire & stayed to eat at Hereford, & it is that route that I speak of as a beautiful one. We saw after leaving Hereford Ludlow
Castle in the distance where Milton's ^{distance} Comus was seen formed by the young people for whom it was written.

We are mourning
as you are, for the removal of our
dear Friend, Miss Carpenter.

You will find this part of the Country extremely quiet. Hoping to see you soon &
to make the acquaintance

of Mr. Frank Garrison.

I remain

Yours most faithfully

Harriet Lupton
